

Newsletter For May And June 2013

1.May Special Intake For Marine Crab/Soft Shell Crab Production Course

1 participant Mr.Justin Aniere from Kenya of African and 1 participant Mr.Marlon Ong from Philippine attended a special 3 days course for marine crab/soft shell crab production training.

Practical work, site visit and course completion.

2. Malaysia Fisheries Society Tilapia Seminar at IOI Garden Hotel of Putra Jaya.

Attended one day Tilapia Seminar with Ir.Liaw, Ex-President of MADA.

Met with some old friends of aquaculture.

June Intakes 7 participants attended the training courses (Marble Goby, Jade Perch and Tilapia)

1. Mr. Alvan Loh from Singapore
2. Mr. Sundar from Kelana Jaya
3. Mr. Chan Wah Kong and Mr. Ho Sang Niece from Kuala Lumpur
4. Mr. Chong Wa Mun from Seremban
5. Mr. Yeap Poh Ian from Ipoh
6. Mr. Lee Chee hong from Singapore
7. Mr. Jacky Teoh Kiat Kee from Rawang

Practical works for the trainees

Practical works for the participants

Using anaesthetic to paralyse the Tilapia brooders for dissection to show the gonad organs.

Invited to Seremban Chung Hua High School as a guest speaker of “De-code the Nature” for whole Malaysia trans-national private school student Holiday Science Camp.

Decode The Nature-“Food Chain For Production of Hybrid Grouper”

STAC Mission and Vision

“To give a fish is for one meal, to teach to fish is for life”.

STAC is the only aquaculture training provider in Malaysia, for the past 15 over years, more than thousand of aquafarmers, investors and new players of the industries from local or overseas have attended the STAC's aquaculture training courses.

For more details kindly visit: www.sta.com.my or FB :Sepang Today Aquaculture Centre;
Aquaculture Industries; Aquaculture Training
Provider.

Email: engwah.khoo@stac.com.my

Sea Weed Farm In Sabah